Finally, I sincerely thank each of you for every effort, regardless of its magnitude, that you have put forth to help promote a positive image of Hill High School and in helping us all make the yearbook theme, "Togetherness," a reality.

Best wishes,

E. Hayes

Emmitt Hayes, Principal

Dear Co-Workers and Students:

As always, I deem it a personal pleasure as well as a privilege to take this opportunity to communicate with you.

I congratulate the yearbook staff for having chosen the word "Togetherness" as its theme for the 1977 edition of the Tiger. To me, "Togetherness" is more than a mere word, it is an attitude, it is a state of mind. It is a symbol of unity, a symbol of oneness and a symbol of cooperation. These are some of the ingredients that make for a successful student body and a successful school.

We, as staff members and students have labored this year to make our school one of which we can justifiably be proud. Our achievements, in all areas of school life, were accomplished as a result of our working cooperatively with one another. As the 1976-77 school year draws rapidly to a close, let us continue to exemplify the theme of our yearbook, "Togetherness," in everything we think or say or do.

During the course of this year, many people came to the school. Dr. Cleland of Belhaven College, Airman 1. C. Darrell Jones of the Air Force Academy, and Mr. and Mrs. Robinson were among the many who came.

The principal and teachers welcomed all visitors to Hill High and put forth every effort to acquaint them with the activities of the school such as the academic program, courses offered to students, clubs, organizations, sports and student government.

School Is Out

The day has ended. The teachers have finished with the students, and the students have finished with the teachers.

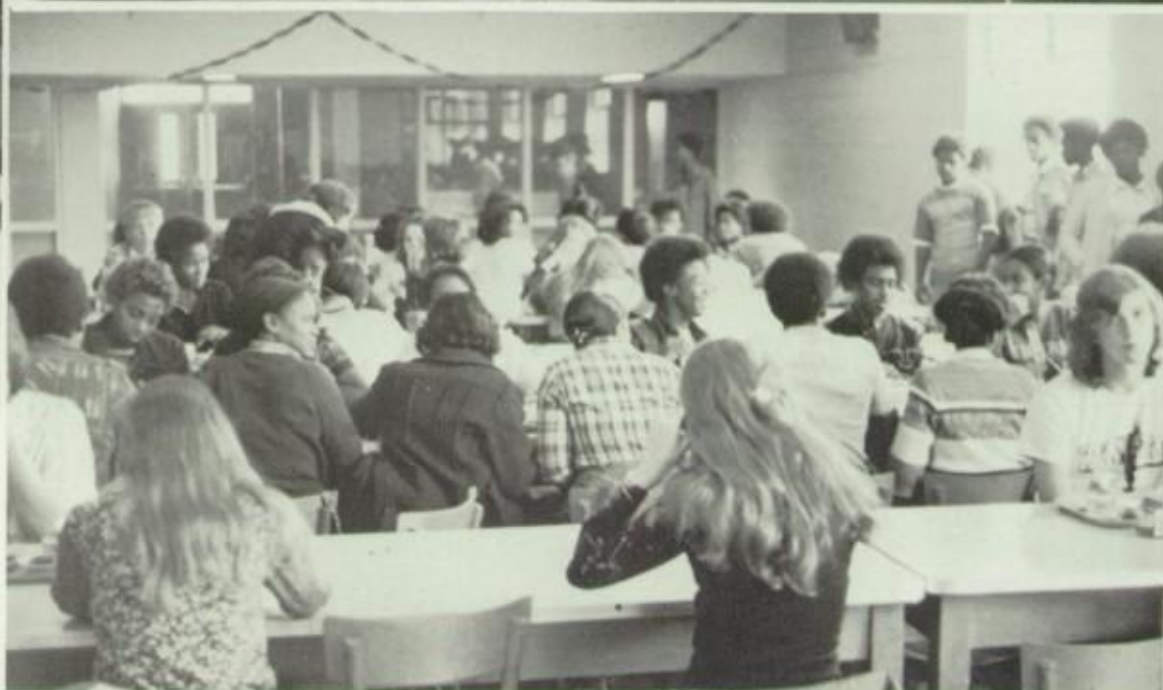

Down the halls we go, some to their lockers, some out the front doors, some out the side doors, and others out the back doors.

Down the sidewalk, up the middle of the street to parked cars, and the big yellow bus is also loading to take the children home.

These activities describe the end of the day at Jim Hill High School.

Mrs. Ideal Clark is the lunchroom mgr. Her helpers are Mrs. Shirley Williams, Mrs. Hertazine Donald, Mrs. Mary Bennett, Mrs. Euice Goss, and Mrs. Codelle Mangum.

The custodial staff: Mr. Ernest Porch, Mr. Floyd Beard, Mr. Tifford Hall, Mrs. Bernice McGee and Mr. Robert Amiker.

Mr. Ewing and Mrs. Jones are helping representatives from Tougaloo College.

Recruiters make frequent visits to Hill High to speak with graduating seniors.

Beverly Burnham and Helen Shaw seem to be enjoying themselves above the staircase near the library.

Kaleidoscope senior class sponsors are Mrs. Colman, Miss Bell, and Mrs. Phillips.

CLASS OFFICERS

Chad Johnson, President; Joseph Darby, Vice President; Ann Dickerson, Secretary; Patti Scott, Treasurer; Ellie Fortner, Business Manager; Delano Funchess, Assistant Business Manager; Mrs. Delphine Colman, Miss Betsy Bell and Mrs. Johnnie Phillips are class Advisers.

A Meeting of the Student Council

The Student Council is an organization composed of students elected by the student body.

The purpose of the Student Council is to give the students a voice in the operation of the school program.

The Student Council plans activities and programs according to the interests and needs of the student body. Some of these activities are:

1. The Council operates the supply store and concessions.
2. Supports Toys for Tots.
3. Participates in the March of Dimes.
4. Visits rest homes during the Christmas Holidays.
5. Represents the school in State and National Student Council Conventions.

The Officers of the Student Council are Lavenita Cottrell, Secretary; Marcia Allen, Vice President; Lynn Davis, President; Jimmy Middlebrook, State Vice President; John Slater, Business Manager; Debra Benson, Treasurer, and Shae Goodman, Reporter.

We must make our decisions in the best interest of the student body.

We had better think over this before making any decisions.

Here comes the President!

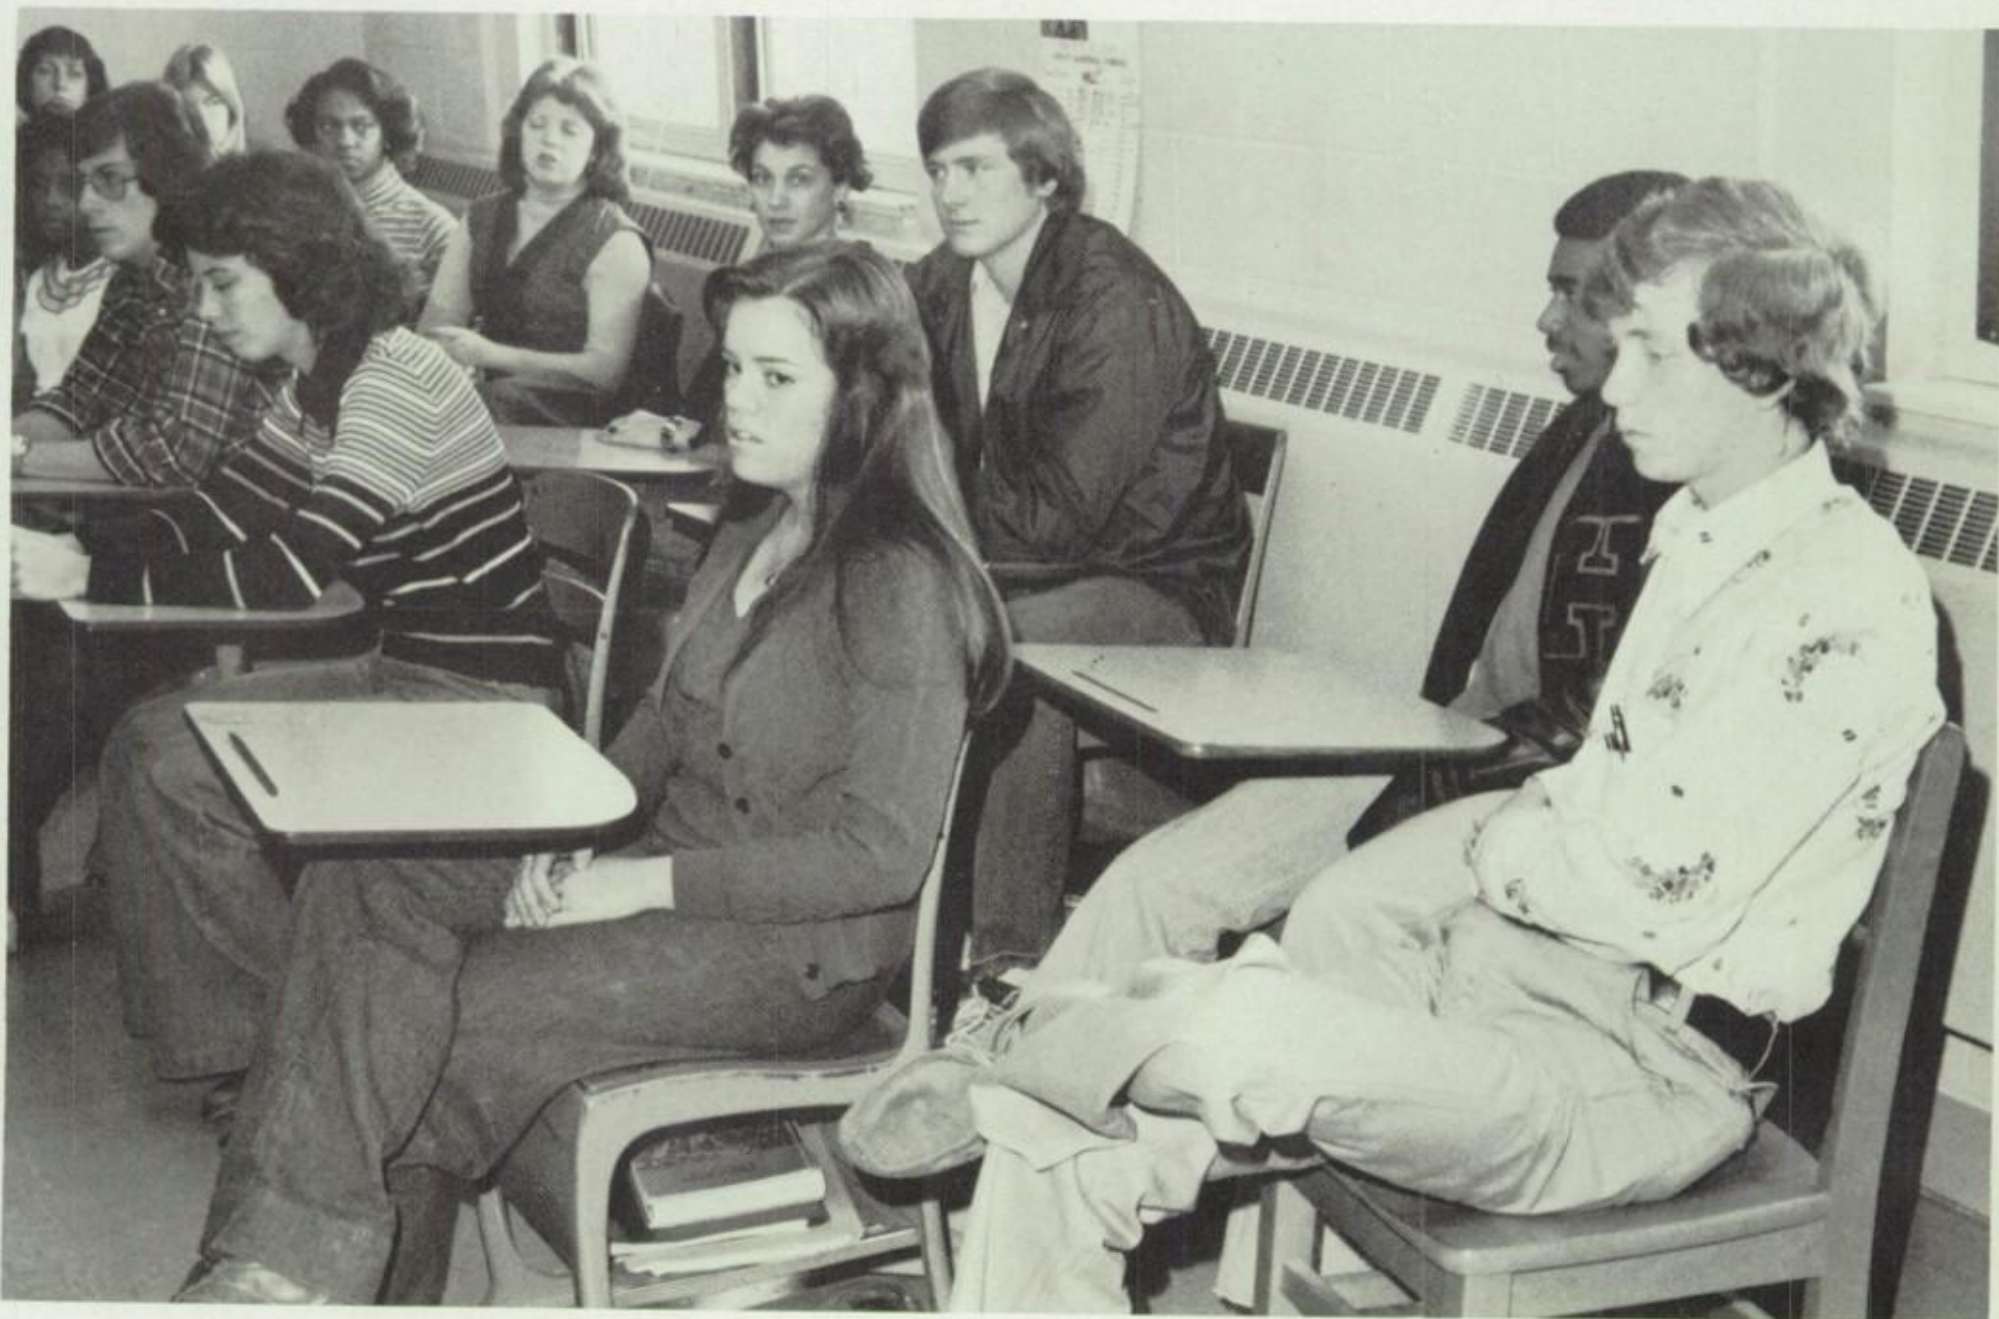

And when the President speaks, we listen.

We think before we speak. This seems to be what every Student Council member is doing as Lynn Davis goes through the list of things to be done.

The Terrible Winter of 1977

Because of the snow, school was closed January 18 and 19. This was an unscheduled closing, but a necessary one because of the unfavorable weather conditions.

Some streets were iced over in many parts of the city, and others were covered with snow.

These pictures of the school and streets in the immediate area, were taken on the morning of January 18 after school had been officially closed.

Monday, January 17, students left school not knowing they would have a two-day vacation because of the snow to fall on January 18 and 19.

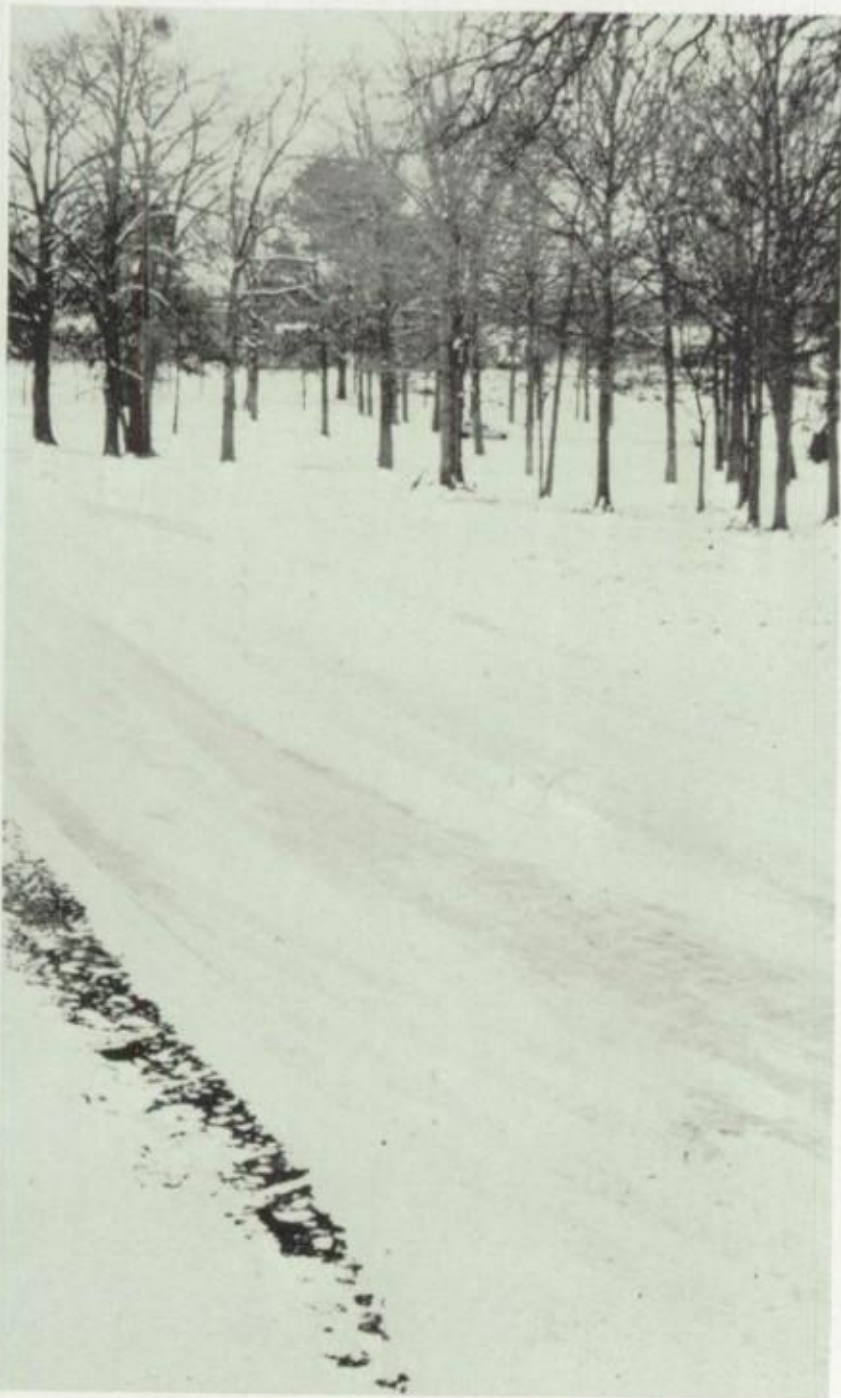

A closed, desolate, but lovely Jim Hill stands majestically upon its snowy pedestal.

Snow All Over the Place

Hills' version of winter wonderland.

The Coldest Winter Yet

Unidentified students throwing snowballs. They are supposed to be in class.

The members of the track team are playing in the snow.

If the weather does not warm up, some valuable practice time will be lost.

These are other unidentified snowball throwers. The Principal is probably looking for them.

The DECA Club is preparing to leave for Vicksburg to attend a conference.

These students are going to their driver education class. Instructors are Mr. Johnny Cockrell and Mr. Charles Bingham.

You have seen our school. It is not just a building but is a symbol of living and learning, which is shown through many activities as we work together, study together, and play together. This is in keeping with our theme, TOGETHERNESS.
